"CFS is making an effort to change the lives of the less fortunate for the better this summer and we hope to get as many people in the community involved as possible," said Robert Turner, Managing Partner of Capitol Financial Solutions. "We will be collecting non-perishable food items not only from our employees and other businesses in the building, but from the public as well."

About the Kiwanis Club of Raleigh

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteer men and women dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time. The Kiwanis family of service clubs has about 600,000 members in nearly 100 nations. Kiwanis International dates back to 1915, and the Kiwanis Club of Raleigh is one of the oldest clubs. The first organizational meeting was held on December 19, 1919, at the Bland Hotel, with 107 members present. The new club was completed on January 3, 1920, and the charter was presented on April 8, 1920. The 124 charter members were a diverse group of Raleigh men who came together with the common interests of fellowship and community service. Kiwanis International adopted the motto "We Build" that same year, and the following year formally adopted underprivileged children as a major service objective.
